Missouri Judicial Report

Fiscal Year 1986

Cape Girardeau County
Courthouse at Cape Girardeau

The Common Pleas Courthouse at Cape Girardeau is one of two courthouses serving Cape Girardeau County, the other is located in Jackson.

Built in 1854, the Common Pleas Courthouse is the second oldest Missouri courthouse still in use. Situated on a high hill overlooking the Mississippi River, the structure was used in the 1860's to hoist signal flags to the city's four forts. A dirt floor dungeon in which Confederate prisoners were once held is still in existence.

The courthouse was remodeled in 1888. Steps constructed in 1900 were made from cement brought from England and were among the first concrete structures in the state.

MISSOURI JUDICIAL REPORT
FISCAL YEAR 1986

(For the period covering July 1, 1985 through June 30, 1986)

PREPARED BY:

OFFICE OF STATE COURTS ADMINISTRATOR
1105 REAR SOUTHWEST BOULEVARD
JEFFERSON CITY, MISSOURI 65101

Supreme Court of Missouri

ANDREW JACKSON HIGGINS
CHIEF JUSTICE

P. O. BOX 150
JEFFERSON CITY, MO 65102

AREA CODE (314)
751-3515

TO HIS EXCELLENCY, THE GOVERNOR, THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY AND MEMBERS OF THE JUDICIARY:

On behalf of the Judiciary of the state of Missouri, it is my privilege and pleasure to transmit the Missouri Judicial Report for the Fiscal Year 1986. This report details the work of the Supreme Court, Court of Appeals and the Circuit Court from July 1, 1985, through June 30, 1986.

The simple enumeration of statistics in this report tends to obscure the people behind the numbers. It is these individuals however, who prompt us to pursue the most effective means of providing the rights and privileges intrinsic to our system of justice: a swift resolution of disputes; justice for those accused as well as their victims; and the impartial administration of the law.

The efforts of the past year have produced significant refinements and advances in Missouri's judicial system. While we take pride in our accomplishments we also express our gratitude to the judges, clerks, lawyers and court personnel whose efforts made this progress possible.

Respectfully submitted,

Andrew Jackson Higgins

Andrew Jackson Higgins
Chief Justice of the Supreme Court and Presiding Officer of the Judicial Conference of Missouri

FOREWORD

About this report...

The Missouri Judicial Report, prepared pursuant to RSMo 476.350 and Supreme Court Rule 82.03, is designed to provide accurate and pertinent information regarding the workload, administration and operations of Missouri's court system during Fiscal Year 1986.

The Year in Review section highlights the major activities and accomplishments, challenges and changes that have occurred during the year. The sections following detail the specific caseload and disposition information of the Supreme Court, Court of Appeals and the Circuit Court.

Once again we express our appreciation to the many judges and clerks of the courts who promptly submitted reports on court operations, and to the employees of the State Courts Administrator's Office who compiled and organized the information. The efforts of everyone involved are sincerely appreciated.

YEAR IN REVIEW

YEAR IN REVIEW

THE MISSOURI JUDICIAL SYSTEM

The official history of the Missouri judiciary dates to the adoption of the constitution of 1820. Written as Missouri prepared to enter the Union, this first constitution placed the judicial power in a Supreme Court, chancery courts, and circuit and other courts which were to be established by the legislature.

Article V of the Constitution of 1945 was amended in 1976 to provide for Missouri's present three-tiered judicial system. The Supreme Court is the state's highest court, with state-wide jurisdiction. The Court of Appeals consists of three districts, established by statute, with general appellate jurisdiction in all cases not within the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court. The third tier is a system of Circuit Courts, comprising 44 circuits, with original jurisdiction over all cases and matters, civil and criminal.

In 1940, Missouri voters adopted an archetypal amendment to the constitution establishing the Non-Partisan Court Plan. The original amendment provided for the non-partisan appointment of Supreme Court and Court of Appeals judges, as well as Circuit Court judges in the City of St. Louis and Jackson County. Other judicial circuits may adopt the plan if approved by a majority of the voters in the circuit. The plan has been extended by popular election in St. Louis, Clay and Platte Counties and, by charter, to Kansas City municipal court judges. Considered one of the most objective and equitable systems of selecting qualified jurists, the Missouri Court Plan has been adopted as a model for judicial selection plans in many other states and jurisdictions.

While the evolution of the judiciary has resulted in a fair and effective system of justice, the accelerating demands on the resources of the courts have not slackened. To the contrary, they continue to escalate. In FY 1986 Missouri's judiciary continued to experience increased caseload activity. This increase was met with innovation, efficiency, and a continuing commitment to legal and judicial excellence.

THE YEAR IN REVIEW

The Constitution of the State of Missouri specifies that the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court "shall be the chief administrative officer of the judicial system and, subject to the supervisory authority of the supreme court, shall supervise the administration of the courts of this state." This responsibility is shared with the other Supreme Court judges and administered in three specific ways: through the establishment of various judicial committees, through direction to the Clerk of the Court and the State Courts Administrator, and through the promulgation of court rules. Through these activities, the court has dealt with growing challenges to a modern judiciary.

The committees and commissions of the judiciary play a vital role in the effective operation of Missouri's courts. The Judicial Education Committee sponsored training sessions to provide continuing education. Courses covered such varied topics as criminal and civil instructions, legislative updates, evidence, sentencing, criminal law developments and domestic relations. Ninety-three judges attended a trial college in August, ninety-four judges attended a survey course in October, and eighty-one judges attended a course on domestic relations in May.

The Subcommittee to the Judicial Education Committee on Training and Certification of Municipal Judges reviews, recommends and administers the certification course for non-lawyer municipal judges and develops and recommends continuing education programs. It conducted training for judges and clerks in October and November regarding Rule 37; made interim revisions to the certification course book and exam; certified thirteen non-lawyer municipal judges; and appointed a Municipal Judges Deskbook Committee.

The Presiding Judges' Executive Committee sponsored two meetings for presiding judges that focused on court delay reduction technology in the courts and the Fair Labor Standards Act.

The State Judicial Records Committee recommended approval of data processing systems in 12 courts; appointed a Policy Advisory Committee to streamline civil and criminal data elements and reporting forms and to make recommendations regarding the Highway Patrol Criminal History Reporting requirements. The Judicial Records Committee also distributed 18 commonly used forms to conform to the Supreme Court's 8½ x 11 inch paper size rule.

The Judicial Conference, meeting in September, passed several resolutions supporting specific legislative initiatives. The appellate judges' section of the conference agreed to form a committee to work with the legislative committee established to study judicial workloads. The Presiding Judges' meeting, held in conjunction with the Judicial Conference, submitted recommendations to the Supreme Court and resolutions to the Judicial Conference regarding potential legislation and budget items.

The Clerk Handbook Committee and Probate Clerk Handbook Committee updated their respective handbooks to reflect recent statutory changes.

The Committee on Jury Instructions-Civil promulgated instructions on comparative negligence.

The Judicial Finance Commission continued to exercise its mandate to provide a forum for the resolution of budget disputes between counties and their respective Circuit Courts. During FY 1986, the Judicial Finance Commission received two budget dispute petitions, one from St. Louis County and one from Jefferson County, in addition to assisting several counties which contemplated filing petitions before this body.

Although the St. Louis County Petition was rejected by the Commission, the Jefferson County Dispute was accepted for filing.

The Missouri Municipal and Associate Judges Association hosted the 1986 Missouri Courts Conference in May. The agenda included legislation, understanding the complainant and the defendant, creative sentencing and an annual survey of the law. The annual meeting of the Association of Probate and Associate Circuit Judges, in April, included programs on contempt, executions and garnishments, bond forfeitures and comparative negligence. The Circuit Clerks and Recorders Association annual meeting, in September, included a legislative report, committee appointments and the election of officers.

The Circuit Court Budget Committee oversees the Circuit Court Personnel System for 1,520 employees of the circuit courts and allocates state personnel appropriations to these courts. In FY 1986, the committee:

Provided general maintenance to Administrative Rule 7, the Missouri Circuit Court Personnel System, including revisions of the compensatory and overtime policies to comply with new amendments to the Fair Labor Standards Act;

Made recommendations to the Supreme Court regarding new policies drafted by the committee governing political activity, dismissals, employee discipline, grievance procedure, lawsuits against Circuit Court officials and employees, and probationary periods;

Authorized and monitored the review and audit of 742 classified Circuit Court positions covering 693.7187 FTE as part of a recurring three-year plan to maintain a current and equitable position classification system.

OFFICE OF STATE COURTS ADMINISTRATOR

An amendment to Article V of the Missouri Constitution, adopted in 1970, granted the Supreme Court the authority to appoint a State Courts Administrator. As the administrative staff of the Supreme Court, the Office of State Courts Administrator fulfills the administrative obligations of the Supreme Court which are mandated under the judicial article and the statutes. The Office of State Courts Administrator provides a wide range of administrative and technical services to Missouri's judges and to circuit clerks and other non-judicial personnel. Training programs and reference materials are provided for judges, clerks and other court personnel to meet the continuing needs of the judicial system. This past year, regional clerk training sessions were held, a Statewide Judicial Information System pilot workshop was conducted, and sessions were held on techniques for improving the quality of electronic sound recording as well as on changes in Administrative Rule 7, the Missouri Circuit Court Personnel System. The office also distributes new administrative rules and details statutory changes as they occur.

The Office of State Courts Administrator assists the Supreme Court in preparing a unified budget for the judicial system, provides staff support to Supreme Court committees, prepares fiscal notes for proposed legislation, tracks legislation of importance to the courts, compiles statistical and management information on the workload of Missouri's courts, and processes all funds appropriated to the Supreme Court.

The central transcribing service of the office prepares type-written transcripts from sound recordings when required for appeals or other purposes. This year's data reflects a substantial increase at all levels of the transcribing service and a steadily growing increase since its inception. Since FY 1980, the number of transcripts prepared has increased by 380 percent, the total pages requested by 511 percent, and the total pages prepared by 371 percent. The productivity of the transcribing service increased by 45 percent in FY 1986, from 36,044 to 52,278 pages. A total of 408 transcripts were prepared, including 212 civil appeals, 103 criminal appeals, 51 guilty pleas and sentencings, and 42 juvenile appeals, preliminary hearings, and other matters.

During the past year, preliminary work on the Automated Child Support Trustee System (ACSTS) was completed and the system field tested in three pilot courts. Two other courts are using the ACSTS for part of their child support work, and the system is being readied for use in any court considering a computerized system. Also in FY 1986, after extensive on-site study, a model record keeping system for traffic cases was developed and it is now being implemented in eight pilot courts throughout the state.

THE COURTS

Supreme Court

The responsibility of the Supreme Court is to hear appeals and provide administrative and policy leadership for the state judicial system. It is the state appellate court of last resort, and has exclusive jurisdiction in all cases involving the validity of a treaty or statute of the United States or a statute or provision of the Missouri constitution, construction of Missouri's revenue laws, title to a state office, and all cases where the death penalty is imposed. In FY 1986, the Supreme Court accepted 473 writs and appeals, an increase of 7 percent over FY 1985. Four hundred twelve (412) appeals and writs were disposed in FY 1986.

Prior to 1972 the Supreme Court had jurisdiction in all criminal felony appeals. In 1972 the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court was changed and most felony appeals now go to the Court of Appeals. At present, the Supreme Court's jurisdiction over these cases is largely in the nature of certiorari, and a large portion of the Supreme Court workload comes in the form of applications for transfer from the Court of Appeals. Most criminal cases result in an application for transfer because failure to file such an application would be a failure to exhaust state remedies; therefore, a defendant would be ineligible to proceed in federal court. Each decision on an application to transfer requires a review process that involves many hours of research and discussion before a decision is made to accept or reject the application. In FY 1986 there were 633 transfer applications filed.

The Court also hears cases involving issues that can be brought directly to the Supreme Court without following the usual procedure through the lower courts. These include writs of prohibition, mandamus, and habeas corpus. In addition to its decision-making powers, the Court adopts rules of practice and procedure for all Missouri courts, prescribes the form and content of instructions to the jury, licenses all lawyers practicing in Missouri, and disciplines lawyers for violations of the code of ethics.

In recent years, the administrative and rule-making responsibilities of the Supreme Court and the chief justice have grown considerably. During the preceding fiscal year the court promulgated several rules and rule changes, and made numerous revisions in the MAI-

Civil and MAI-Criminal. Some of the changes and adoptions are as follows:

-Revised data processing guidelines as promulgated in Administrative Rule 1.

-Promulgated comparative fault instructions effective September 1, 1986.

-Revised uniform record keeping system guidelines as promulgated by Administrative Rule 4.

-Amended Administrative Rule 5, which deals with electronic sound recording.

-Promulgated Administrative Rule 13, which became effective January 1, 1986. The rule establishes procedures for municipalities and municipal divisions to resolve budget disputes by filing a request with the presiding judge. It also sets out procedures for filing a petition for review with a municipal finance commission. The Judicial Finance Commission is designated as the Municipal Finance Commission.

-Adopted a new subdivision 5.22(e), "Alternative Procedure Where Attorney May be Impaired," of Rule 5, and a new Supreme Court Rule 16 entitled "Substance Abuse Intervention," consisting of subdivisions 16.01 to 16.10 inclusive.

-Repealed subdivision 8.10, entitled "Admission without Examination" and repealed subdivision 8.13 entitled "Residence Requirements" of Supreme Court Rule 8, entitled "Admission to the Bar," and, in lieu thereof, adopted a new subdivision 8.10, entitled "Admission without Examination."

-Repealed subdivisions 12.01, 12.10, 12.19 and 12.26 of Supreme Court Rule 12, "Commission on Retirement, Removal and Discipline," and adopted new subdivisions 12.01, 12.08, 12.10, 12.19 and 12.26, effective July 1, 1986.

-Repealed subdivision 23.05 of Supreme Court Rule 23, entitled "Misdemeanors or Felonies-Indictment or Information." This subdivision has been replaced by a new subdivision 23.05 of the same title, effective July 1, 1986.

-Repealed subdivisions 24.06, "Misdemeanors or Felonies-Joint Defendants-Severance," and 24.07, "Misdemeanors or Felonies-Severance of Offenses," of Supreme Court Rule and adopted new subdivisions 24.06 and 24.07 in their place, effective July 1, 1986.

-Repealed subdivisions 30.01, 30.02 and 30.26 of Supreme Court Rule 30 entitled "Appellate Procedure in All Criminal Cases." In their place the Court adopted subdivisions 30.01, "Right to and Manner of Appeal"; 30.02, "Interlocutory Appeal by State"; and 30.26, "Motions for Rehearing." The changes became effective July 1, 1986.

-Repealed Supreme Court Rule 37 and, in lieu thereof, adopted new Supreme Court Rule 37, entitled "Ordinance Violations and Traffic Violations Bureaus."

-Repealed subdivision 55.03 of the Supreme Court Rules and adopted a new rule 55.03 which became effective July 1, 1986. The new rule is entitled "Pleadings, Motions and Other Papers To Be Signed, By Whom-Sanctions."

-Repealed "Committee Note-1981" to subdivision 77.05 of Supreme Court Rule 77 entitled "Costs," and adopted, in its stead, a new "Committee Note-1981," effective July 1, 1986.

As chief administrative officer of the Supreme Court, the chief justice's responsibilities have evolved to encompass a myriad of duties and responsibilities. The chief justice serves as general liaison to the legislature, executive branch, and Missouri Bar. He is also the contact person for those citizens and organizations seeking information or a speaker. The chief justice chairs the Judicial Conference and is a member of that organization's executive committee. He also serves as Missouri's representative at the Conference of Chief Justices and on the Appellate Judicial Commission. His executive duties include responding to administrative questions that arise within the Supreme Court as well as other state courts; and attending to personnel matters, internal budget considerations and the Court's physical plant. He is responsible, along with other members of the Court, for final approval of the budget for the judiciary.

Court of Appeals

The Court of Appeals continued to sustain a heavy workload throughout FY 1986. There were 3,147 appeals and writs filed in the three districts of the Court of Appeals in FY 1986 and 3,206 appeals and writs disposed.

Several innovative procedures have been developed by the Court that are designed to expedite the hearing process for this large number of cases. These include the use of settlement conferences wherein the parties in all civil cases are required to attend a pre-submission conference conducted by a judge of the court. Such conferences are often scheduled in cities and towns other than where the main seat of the court is located for the convenience of litigants and counsel. In cases where the parties reach a settlement, the appeal can be disposed before a transcript and briefs are filed and an opinion written.

-The Western District began, in September of 1985, to hear arguments in Jefferson City on appeals originating in mid-Missouri counties. In FY 1986 divisions of the court traveled to Jefferson City on four occasions, to hear arguments in 40 cases.

-The Eastern District has increased its ability to handle an ever-increasing workload by using the services of a senior judge and special judges as assigned by the Supreme Court. The Eastern District Court also sits in Cape Girardeau and Hannibal to hear appeals from those areas, in addition to its regularly scheduled sessions in St. Louis. Divisions of the court traveled twice in FY 1986 to Cape Girardeau, and heard arguments in 22 cases. They traveled twice to Hannibal and heard arguments in 19 cases.

-The Southern District holds sessions in both Springfield and Poplar Bluff. Divisions of the Southern District court traveled twice to Poplar Bluff, and heard arguments in 28 cases. The Southern District also uses senior and special judges as assigned by the Supreme Court.

-In all districts, various case screening methods are employed to monitor case flow and to identify problems in the appellate judicial process.

One new judge was appointed to the bench in the Court of Appeals. Fernando J. Gaitan, Jr. was appointed to replace the retiring Ronald L. Somerville on the Western District Court of Appeals.

Circuit Court

Cases filed in the Circuit Court divisions totaled more than 803,678, surpassing last year's total by more than 22,580 cases, or 3 percent. The number of cases disposed numbered approximately 764,661, some 26,958 or 3.7 percent more than in the previous fiscal year. To handle this prodigious number of cases and to respond to workload needs across the state, the Supreme Court makes many judicial transfers. There were more than 1,400 judicial transfers in FY 1986. Of the judges participating, 28 accepted 15 or more transfers.

To further ameliorate disproportionate circuit-level workloads, associate circuit judges, either by order of the Supreme Court, by assignment of the presiding judge, or by local court rule disposed 49 percent (26,238 cases) of the domestic relations cases, 20 percent (6,826 cases) of other civil matters, 6 percent (893 cases) of the felony caseload, 37 percent (1,215 cases) of the municipal trials de novo, and 71 percent (1,878 cases) of the misdemeanors filed directly in or certified to the circuit divisions.

A teleconferencing pilot project, initiated in FY 1984-1985 and implemented in five circuits during FY 1986 has proven to be extremely successful. Launched jointly by the Office of State Courts Administrator and the Missouri Bar, with financial assistance provided by the Justice Assistance Act, this practice of disposing certain interim motions by teleconference produces benefits to the bench, bar and general public. Teleconferencing reduces the cost of litigation, expedites the judicial process, and makes greater use of judicial manpower by disposing of some court business during periods when the court is not in session.

Several new judges were appointed in FY 1986 to the Circuit Courts.

-In Circuit 21, Larry L. Kendrick was appointed to fill the associate circuit judgeship left vacant by retiring Judge Ann Niederlander.

-In Circuit 22, Robert G. Dowd, Jr. was appointed circuit judge replacing Judge Gary M. Gaertner who was appointed to the Eastern District Court of Appeals.

-In Circuit 22, Thadeus F. Niemira was appointed associate circuit judge to replace Judge Robert G. Dowd, Jr.

-In Circuit 22, Robert Dierker was appointed circuit judge to replace Judge P. F. Palumbo who retired.

-In Circuit 22, Henry Edward Autrey was appointed to replace Associate Circuit Judge Harold Fullwood who retired.

-In Circuit 34, Eugene E. Reeves was appointed circuit judge to replace Judge John R. Bailey who retired.

-In Circuit 34, Byron Luber was appointed associate circuit judge to replace Judge Eugene E. Reeves in Pemiscot County.

-In Circuit 35, John Ringer was appointed associate circuit judge in Stoddard County to fill the vacancy created by the death of Judge Jimmie Trammell.

-In Circuit 38, Anthony McConnell was appointed to fill the associate circuit judge vacancy in Christian County created by the death of Judge Sam J. Appleby.

-In Circuit 39, J. Edward Sweeney was appointed to fill the associate circuit judge vacancy in Barry County created by the death of Judge John Baty.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

For FY 1986 the state expended over $2,964,880,000 for the operation of Missouri government. Of that amount, approximately $64,483,000 or 2 percent of the total budget was disbursed for the judiciary and the public defender program. Of this, approximately $60,370,000 or 94 percent of judicial expenditures were for personnel costs, with the remainder allocated for operating expenses and equipment. A total of $17.6 million was collected by the judiciary to be submitted to the Missouri Department of Revenue from filing, transcription and court reporter fees, Crime Victims' Compensation Act judgments, county officers' compensation fund and prosecuting attorneys' training fund collections and other monies.

Through efforts of the clerks, the State General Revenue Fund received almost $850,000 in federal reimbursements for child support enforcement work. This is about $155,000 (18 percent) more than FY 1985 and reflects the increased participation in the child support enforcement process.

Disbursements to the Crime Victims' Compensation Act fund totaled close to $1,171,000, an increase of $361,000 (31 percent) compared to the previous fiscal year. Part of this increase is due to new legislation which increased the judgment amount from $26 to $36.

Judgments were entered against more than 39,000 defendants sentenced to prison, receiving a suspended imposition of sentence, sentenced to pay a fine, or placed under the supervision of the State Board of Probation and Parole or a county parole officer, an increase of almost 30 percent over last year's figures. This increase is due, in part, to the inclusion of those persons sentenced to pay a fine in the categories of defendants required to pay into the fund.

STATISTICAL SUMMARY

STATISTICAL SUMMARY

The judiciary overall continued to experience increased caseload activity. In the Supreme Court the number of appeals and writs filed increased 7 percent, a slight increase over last year, to total 473 cases. Applications to transfer exceeded 600, for the second consecutive year.

Appeals and writs filed and disposed in the Court of Appeals were at levels consistent with FY 1985. There were 3,147 appeals and writs filed and 3,206 disposed. The court achieved a disposition to filing ratio of 1.02, the sixth time in the last ten years that a ratio of 1.00 or above has been attained.

A total of 803,678 cases were filed in the circuit, juvenile, associate and probate divisions of the Circuit Court, an increase of 22,580 cases (3 percent). Cases disposed increased 3.7 percent, or 26,958, to total 764,661. The Circuit Court achieved an overall disposition to filing ratio of 0.95.

THE SUPREME COURT

As noted earlier, the Missouri Supreme Court has exclusive appellate jurisdiction in all cases involving the validity of a treaty or statute of the United States or a statute or provision of the Missouri constitution, construction of Missouri's revenue laws, title to a state office, and all cases where the death penalty is imposed. The court may also agree to accept transfers of certain cases from the Court of Appeals.

The Missouri constitution of 1945 charged the Supreme Court with promulgating rules of practice, procedure and pleading in all Missouri's courts and administrative tribunals, and with the temporary transfer of judicial personnel as needed. The Year in Review section of this report provides a partial listing of the rule changes and adoptions that constitute a significant element of the Court's annual workload.

Seven judges sit on the Supreme Court. They are selected pursuant to the Missouri Non-Partisan Court Plan. A chief justice, selected by the court en banc, serves for a two-year term. In addition to his

APPEALS AND WRITS FILED AND DISPOSED

The number of appeals and writs filed in FY 1986 was at its highest level in three years, an increase of 7 percent over FY 1985. A total of 149 appeals were filed, a slight decrease from the previous year, but generally comparable with previous years. A total of 324 writs were filed, an increase of 13 percent over FY 1985.

Of the appeals filed, 105 were civil and 44 were criminal. A total of 108 appeals were disposed. Sixty-seven (67) percent of the dispositions were by opinion, 10 percent by dismissal, 21 percent by transfer, and 2 percent were by order and other means, such as consolidation, or appeal

There were 304 writs disposed, the highest number in three years, including 110 writs of mandamus, 97 writs of prohibition, 91 writs of habeas corpus, five writs of certiorari, and one of quo warranto.

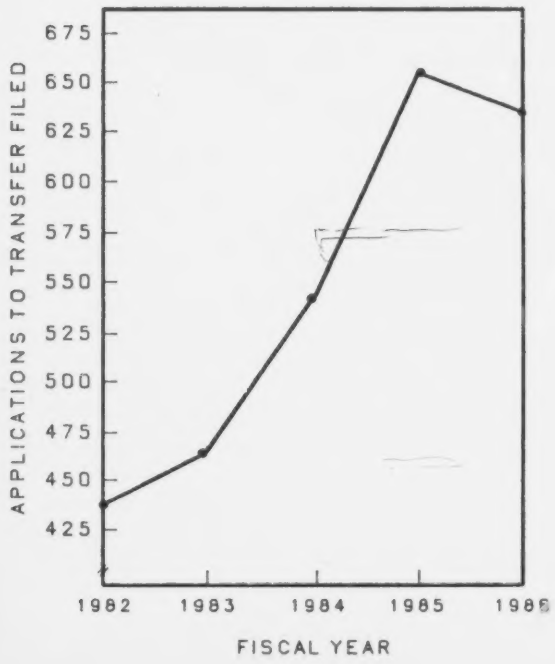
SUPREME COURT
APPLICATIONS TO TRANSFER FILED
FY 1982 THROUGH FY 1986



APPLICATIONS TO TRANSFER; APPLICATIONS FOR REINSTATEMENT

Each year the court receives applications to transfer cases from the Court of Appeals if the cases involve questions of general interest or importance, if the court believes that the existing law should be changed, or for other reasons provided by law. The number of applications to transfer approached FY 1985's record figure, with 633 applications filed. In five years the number of transfer applications has risen 56 percent, with FY 1986 showing only a very slight decrease in this trend.

There were a total of 20 applications for reinstatement by attorneys who were previously disciplined, suspended or removed from the practice of law by the court after recommendation by the Advisory Committee of the Missouri Bar.

THE COURT OF APPEALS

Missouri's current structure of one Court of Appeals divided into three districts was established in 1970 by constitutional amendment. Each district of the Court of Appeals may sit in divisions determined by the judges of that district. Each division is composed of at least three judges.

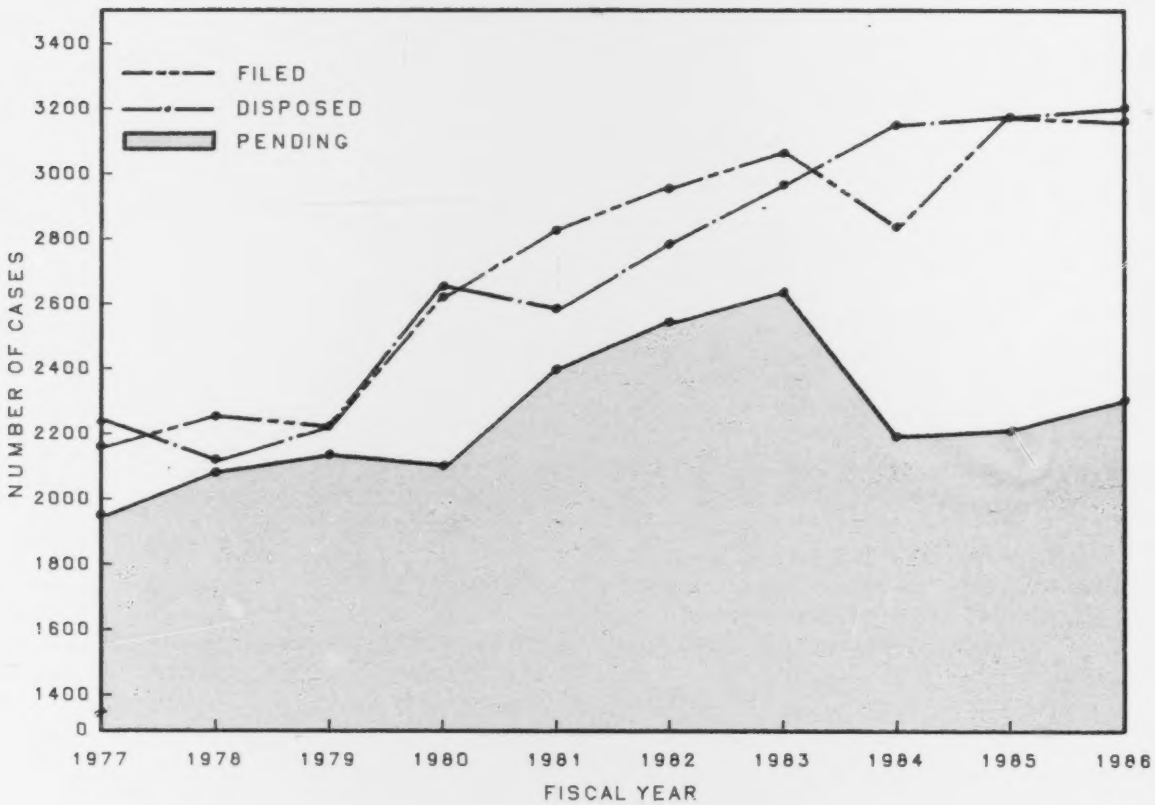
COURT OF APPEALS
TEN-YEAR WORKLOAD SUMMARY: APPEALS AND WRITS
FY 1977 THROUGH FY 1986



The orders, judgments and decrees of a majority of the judges of any division, as to matters pending before it, have the force and effect of those of the full court. The Court of Appeals may issue original remedial writs and has general appellate jurisdiction in all cases not within the exclusive jurisdiction of the Supreme Court.

Appellate judges are nominated by the nonpartisan Appellate Judicial Commission and appointed by the governor. If approved by the voters at the first general election after their first 12 months in office, they serve 12-year terms. The judges in each district elect a chief judge to serve for a term fixed by the district.

APPEALS AND WRITS FILED AND DISPOSED

While the upward trend of appeals filed moderated slightly in FY 1986, the total number filed was still the second highest ever recorded. There were 2,638 appeals filed, 1,387 civil and 751 criminal; a decrease of 3 percent from FY 1985. Once an appeal was submitted for a decision, the average time for an opinion to be handed down was 67 days for a civil appeal and 49 days for a criminal appeal. Although the court has little direct control over many of the significant events occurring in an appeal (certain time limits are established by rule; for example, those for transcript and brief preparation), these figures reflect a decrease in time required for producing an opinion from FY 1985's averages of 73 days and 53 days respectively.

The court achieved a disposition to filing ratio for appeals of 1.03, thereby attaining the second highest disposition to filing ratio since FY 1978. There were 2,705 appeals disposed, 1,650, or 61 percent of which were disposed by opinion. Seventy-eight (78) percent of the criminal cases and 54 percent of the civil cases were disposed by opinion.

There were 509 writs filed, 14 percent more than in FY 1985 and the highest number recorded at any time. Five hundred one (501) writs were disposed, an increase of 17 percent from FY 1985. The court achieved a disposition to filing ratio for writs of 0.98, the highest in five years.

Writs of mandamus increased 29 percent in FY 1986; writs of habeas corpus increased by 11 percent, and writs of prohibition increased by 7 percent over FY 1985. There were 39 writs pending at the end of the fiscal year.

In FY 1986 1,755 opinions were handed down for writs and appeals including majority, per curiam, concurring and dissenting opinions. Of these opinions, 1,725 were for appeals and 30 for writs. Of the total 1,755 opinions, 581 were from the Western District (576 on appeals), 890 were from the Eastern District (873 on appeals), and 284 were from the Southern District (276 on appeals).

PENDING CASELOADS

The Court of Appeals began the year with a pending caseload of 2,334 appeals. On June 30, 1986, there were 2,267 cases pending in the three districts; 782 criminal appeals and 1,485 civil appeals. Of these pending appeals, approximately 70 percent were awaiting the filing of transcripts or briefs. The remainder were ready for docketing, under submission to the court, waiting for opinion mandates to be sent or were awaiting rulings on post opinion motions.

THE CIRCUIT COURT

The Circuit Court, composed of 44 judicial circuits, is the court with original jurisdiction in all civil and criminal cases. The Circuit Court is organized into divisions: circuit, associate, juvenile, municipal, and probate. Each division hears and decides different classes of cases within its jurisdiction. In general, the circuit division handles felony cases after the preliminary hearing, civil cases where the amount of money involved exceeds $5,000, domestic relations cases, certain misdemeanor cases, cases involving unusual procedures (such as a writ of prohibition, a writ of mandamus, quo warranto, or habeas corpus), and cases that are certified or come to the circuit division on a request for a trial de novo.

Circuit judges are either elected by voters in the circuit in which they are to serve or, in St. Louis City and County and Jackson, Clay and Platte Counties, they are selected through Missouri's nonpartisan selection plan. At present, there are 133 circuit judgeships.

The Missouri Constitution mandates that each county have at least one resident associate circuit judge. Additional judges may be authorized by statute. At present there are 170 associate circuit judges, who have either been elected by the voters in the county in which they serve or, in St. Louis City and County and Jackson, Clay and Platte Counties, through the nonpartisan selection plan.

The associate divisions hear civil cases where the sum involved does not exceed $5,000 (after January 1, 1987, the amount increases to $15,000), misdemeanor or infraction cases, and felony cases prior to the filing of information. Associate circuit judges may also hear municipal ordinance violations in municipalities that have less than 400,000 people and have no municipal judge; and matters filed in small claims courts as prescribed in Chapter 482 of Missouri's revised statutes.

By agreement of the parties, by assignment of the presiding judge or by local court rule, an associate circuit judge may hear any case pending in the Circuit Court. Article V, Section 6 of the Missouri Constitution allows associate circuit judges to hear any case or class of cases upon assignment by the Supreme Court.

CASES FILED PER 1,000 POPULATION BY CIRCUIT

domestic relations, civil, criminal, and municipal trial de novo/ certifications filed was 119,252, a 4 percent increase (4,055 cases) over FY 1985, and the second highest number ever reported. The number of circuit division cases disposed also increased, to 109,548; a 5 percent increase (4,828) over FY 1985, and the highest number ever disposed. An overall disposition to filing ratio of 0.92 was achieved.

CIVIL CASES

There were 34,734 civil cases disposed, a 13 percent increase over FY 1985. The number of civil cases (excluding domestic relations) filed increased slightly (1 percent or 312 cases) to total 37,075. A disposition to filing ratio of 0.94 was achieved. There were 58,017 civil cases pending at the end of the fiscal year.

Jury trials in civil cases increased 8 percent, to 982 (3 percent of the total civil cases disposed), the highest number in three years. Forty-two (42) percent or 14,650 civil cases were disposed by non-jury trial (a trial before a judge, but without a jury).

DOMESTIC RELATIONS CASES

The number of domestic relations cases filed also increased, to 58,103; a 4 percent increase over FY 1985. Domestic relations cases disposed totaled 53,376; an increase of 2 percent over FY 1985, and the highest number disposed since FY 1982. The courts achieved a disposition to filing ratio of 0.92 for domestic relations cases in general, and a disposition to filing ratio of 0.96 for dissolutions. There were 32,875 dissolution cases filed and 31,462 disposed.

FELONY CASES

The number of felony cases filed in the circuit divisions increased 10 percent over last year, to total 17,403. Felony cases disposed increased 2 percent, to total 15,463 cases disposed. In nine circuits, the number of felony cases disposed equaled or surpassed the number filed, resulting, in those circuits, in a disposition to filing ratio of 1.00 or greater. Statewide, 9,843 felony cases were pending at the end of FY 1986.

Based on age at disposition information compiled for approximately one-half of the cases disposed, the average (median) age of felony cases at disposition was approximately 2 months in FY 1986. An estimated 83 percent of the 15,463 felony cases were disposed within six months, and 95 percent were disposed within one year of being filed in the circuit divisions.

A total of 2,660 jury and non-jury trials were conducted. About 1,900 non-jury trials were held, representing 12 percent of all felony cases disposed. A jury trial was held in 764 cases, representing 5 percent of the total disposed. The number of felony cases disposed by a guilty plea increased 7 percent to total 9,739 cases, or 63 percent of all felony cases disposed.

MISDEMEANOR CASES

There were 3,335 misdemeanor cases filed in the circuit divisions, a 13 percent (371 cases) increase over FY 1985. The number of misdemeanor cases disposed increased 9 percent (217 cases) to total 2,655 cases, the highest number in at least five years. At the end of the fiscal year, 3,638 misdemeanor cases were pending.

Based on information available for approximately one half of the misdemeanor cases disposed, including felonies reduced to misdemeanors, the average (median) age at disposition was about 4 months. An estimated 66 percent of the cases were disposed within six months of being filed in the circuit divisions, and 90 percent were disposed within one year. Nine hundred thirty-two (932) misdemeanor cases, or 35 percent of the total, were disposed by a jury or non-jury trial.

from last year, with 3,336 municipal cases filed and 3,320 disposed. At the end of the year, 1,972 municipal cases were pending. At the same time, the number of municipal jury and non-jury trials conducted increased slightly to total 719 trials, or 22 percent of all municipal cases disposed.

ASSOCIATE CIRCUIT DIVISIONS

The associate divisions of the Circuit Court experienced a significant increase in the number of cases filed and disposed at all levels of jurisdiction, with the exception of traffic cases, which were filed in numbers comparable with last year's high number.

The total number of cases filed, 651,351, surpassed last year's number of filings by 3 percent (16,499). The number of cases disposed, 623,524, surpassed last year's dispositions by 20,977 cases (3.5 percent). Despite the sizeable increases in caseload, the associate courts achieved a disposition to filing ratio of 0.96, a slight increase over last year's ratio of 0.95.

CIVIL CASES

Filings of civil cases increased 9 percent over FY 1985, to total 107,858. The number of cases disposed, 104,958, represented an increase of 16 percent (14,214) over FY 1985. Almost 12,400 of these cases were disposed by trial, the highest number disposed by trial to date. The disposition to filing ratio for civil cases was 0.97. The pending civil caseload increased only 3 percent, the smallest percentage increase for any associate case type.

SMALL CLAIMS CASES

For the first time, the number of small claims filed exceeded 20,000. This total, 20,801, reflects an increase of 6 percent (1,084 cases) over last year. The growth in the number of small claims cases filed since the FY 1983 change in jurisdiction from $500 to $1,000 has been 12 percent (2,138 cases). Eighteen thousand nine hundred fifty-five (18,955) small claims cases were disposed in FY 1986, 4 percent more (639 cases) than in FY 1985. More than 7,600 of the cases were disposed by trial, the largest number to date.

FELONY COMPLAINTS

Felony complaint filings increased 6 percent over FY 1985 to total 27,586, the highest number in five years, and felony dispositions increased 10 percent, to total 26,000, the highest number since FY 1981. Over 12,000 felony cases were bound over to the circuit divisions for final disposition.

MISDEMEANOR CASES

For the fourth consecutive year, misdemeanor cases filed and disposed reached record levels. Close to 69,200 misdemeanor cases were filed in FY 1986, compared with 65,739 in FY 1985, 60,231 in FY 1984, and 56,207 in FY 1983. A total of 63,679 misdemeanor cases were disposed, an 8 percent (4,907 cases) increase over the previous fiscal year.

TRAFFIC CASES

The number of state traffic cases filed, 384,500, was comparable to last year's figure. The number of state traffic cases disposed was 370,259, down about 2 percent (6,706 cases) from FY 1985, but, nevertheless, the second largest number disposed in a single fiscal year.

ORDINANCE VIOLATION CASES

With 41,419 municipal and county ordinance violation cases filed, and 39,673 cases disposed, the courts achieved a disposition to filing ratio of 0.96. It should be noted that these figures reflect only those cases filed and disposed where the municipal cases are filed directly in the associate divisions of the Circuit Court. Many associate judges hear municipal cases where the municipality has elected to maintain its municipal court and funds all the costs of clerical support and physical facilities. These, as well as the cases handled by local municipal judges, are not reflected in the data provided here.

PENDING CASELOAD

Statewide, the number of pending, associate-level cases increased about 28,000 (10 percent). Despite the overall rise in pending caseloads, many counties had fewer pending cases at the end of the year than when the fiscal year began. Of the 114 counties and the City of St. Louis, 31 reduced their civil pending caseloads; 42 reduced their small claims pending caseloads; 38 reduced their felony pending caseloads; 29 reduced their misdemeanor/infraction pending caseloads; and 25 reduced their traffic pending caseloads. Twenty-five (25) counties reduced their entire pending caseload.

JUVENILE DIVISIONS

The juvenile divisions of the Circuit Court serve persons under 17 years of age. If the juvenile court acquired jurisdiction over a child before he or she reached the age of 17, the court may retain jurisdiction until the child reaches the age of 21. However, the court does not retain jurisdiction if a child is prosecuted for any violation of state law or a municipal ordinance which he committed after he reached 17 years of age.

A child may come within the jurisdiction of the court for several reasons, including neglect and abuse, status offenses such as repeated truancy and incorrigibility, and acts committed by a child which would constitute a crime if committed by an adult. The court also hears adoption and termination of parental rights cases. State or municipal traffic ordinance violations which do not constitute a felony are not within the jurisdiction of the juvenile court.

CASES FILED

The number of cases filed in the juvenile divisions increased by 1,343 cases or 8 percent over FY 1985. There were 19,130 cases filed, including new filings and supplemental proceedings in which a petition was filed. Thirty-eight (38) percent of all allegations in the juvenile cases filed involved a violation of state law or municipal ordinance; 16 percent involved a status offense; 29 percent involved child abuse or neglect; 4 percent involved termination of parental rights, and 13 percent involved adoption proceedings. A case may involve multiple allegations.

CASES DISPOSED

There was an increase of 3 percent in the number of cases disposed over those disposed in FY 1985. With 18,752 cases disposed and 19,130 filed, the divisions achieved a disposition to filing ratio of 0.98. At the same time, however, the number of cases pending increased 4 percent from 8,703 cases at the beginning of the fiscal year to 9,081 cases at the end of the fiscal year. The manners of disposition were as follows:

- 9,583 cases (51 percent of the total) were disposed by an uncontested hearing. This is an increase of 3 percent (306 cases) over last year, and the greatest number of uncontested hearings in three years.

-2,859 cases (15 percent of the total) were disposed by a contested hearing. This is an increase of 9 percent (239 cases) over FY 1985, and the most contested hearings reported in four years.

-3,157 cases (17 percent of the total) were dismissed. This is an increase of 11 percent (315 cases) over FY 1985.

-the remaining cases were disposed by adoption hearings (2,040 or 11 percent), termination of parental rights hearings (684 or 4 percent), transfer to another jurisdiction (335 or 2 percent) and certification to adult court (94 or 1 percent).

A court may maintain jurisdiction over a juvenile after a determination of the facts and entry of an order. This continued supervision workload is not reflected in caseload statistics. Also not included in the caseload statistics is the number of cases unofficially disposed or those cases where a formal petition was not filed with the court.

PROBATE DIVISIONS

The probate divisions of the Circuit Court administer deceased persons' estates, the estates of those who are incapacitated or disabled, and the estates of minors. The probate divisions also handle certain mental health proceedings. The number of cases filed in the probate divisions, including both estates and mental health proceedings, increased by 5 percent from FY 1985, to total 13,945. A significant element in this rise was the 3 percent increase in the number of estates opened, to a total of 12,377. This was the greatest number opened since FY 1979. Conservatorship only estates, which now comprise 40 percent of all minors' estates opened, increased 72 percent over last year to a total of 495.

There were 11,259 estates closed, an increase of 3 percent over FY 1985. Nearly 37,516 estates were pending at the end of the fiscal year. The large pending caseload reflects the long period of time estates generally remain open and require the court's attention.

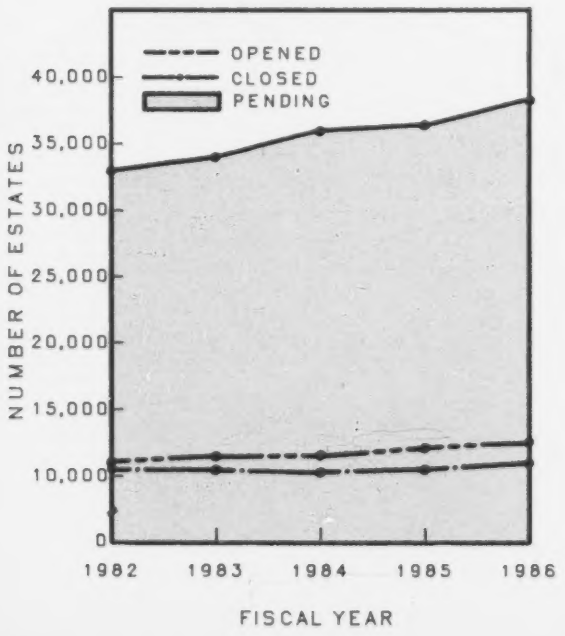
DECEDENTS' ESTATES

Independently administered decedents' estates continued to increase both in number and percentage, with 2,270, or 27 percent, of all decedents' estates opened to be administered independently. This is an increase of 10 percent over FY 1985.

The number of supervised decedents' estates opened totaled 6,073, a decrease of 5 percent (301) from last year. The total number of both types of decedents' estates opened was 8,343, slightly lower than FY 1985.

With 8,473 decedents' estates closed, the number of pending cases was reduced to 16,436.

Figure 19
PROBATE DIVISION
FIVE-YEAR WORKLOAD SUMMARY:
DECEDENTS', MINORS' AND
INCAPACITATED/DISABLED ESTATES
FY 1982 THROUGH FY 1986



INCAPACITATED/DISABLED ESTATES

The number of estates opened and closed for persons incapacitated or disabled was the highest ever, with 2,797 estates opened and 1,864 closed, increases of 7 percent (191) and 14 percent (224) respectively.

Guardianship only estates increased by 30 percent (189) to total 814, representing 29 percent of all incapacitated/disabled estates opened. The number of conservatorship only estates opened also rose, to 100, increasing 43 percent (30), while the number of combined conservatorship and guardianship only estates opened declined slightly to 1,883.

There were 14,445 incapacitated/disabled estates pending at the end of the year.

MINORS' ESTATES

Totaling 1,237, the number of minors' estates opened was at the highest level in at least five years and up 28 percent (269) from last year. Nine hundred twenty-two (922) estates were closed, down from last year's total of 1,090.

Guardianship only estates were also up, with 399 estates opened, an increase of 62 estates, or 18 percent. The number of combined guardianship and conservatorship estates opened, 343, is consistent with last year's. However, the percentage of estates requiring both a conservator and guardian declined to 28 percent of all minors' estates opened, compared with 36 percent in FY 1985.

At the end of the fiscal year, 6,635 minors' estates were pending.

MENTAL HEALTH PROCEEDINGS

There were 1,568 petitions for 21-day, 90-day or one-year detention and treatment at a mental health facility filed, up 25 percent (317) over last year.

There were 1,578 cases disposed, the highest number in three years and an increase of 22 percent (289 cases) over FY 1985.

Thirty-one (31) cases remained pending at the end of the year.

ABBREVIATED MATTERS

The highest number of applications to date, 5,030, were filed for 96-hour detention and treatment through the Department of Mental Health.

There were 2,687 small estate affidavits received, down from the 2,898 affidavits received last year.

Nearly 5,400 creditor and spouse or minor applications for refusals of letters were filed, down slightly from last year.

DETAILED STATISTICS

DETAILED STATISTICS

The following tables provide detailed caseload information not included in the statistical summary. Many of the tables include the percentage change in pending, disposition to filing ratio and pending to disposition ratio for each case type. An explanation of the percentage change in pending, disposition to filing ratio, and the pending to disposition ratio is provided below to make the tables easier to understand and use.

Percentage Change in Pending—provides an indication of the relative increase or decrease in pending caseload. A positive number indicates an increase in pending cases, zero indicates no change and a negative number means the pending caseload decreased during the year. The percentage change in pending is calculated by subtracting pending beginning caseload from the pending at the end and dividing the difference by the beginning pending.

Disposition to Filing Ratio—compares the number of cases disposed to the number of cases filed during the year to give an indication of how well the court is keeping pace with the workload. A ratio of 1.00 indicates that the court disposed of an equal number of cases as the number filed. A ratio of 0.50 indicates that the court was able to dispose half the number of cases that were filed. The disposition to filing ratio is calculated by dividing total dispositions by total filings.

Pending to Disposition Ratio—provides an indication of the size of the pending caseload relative to the court's rate of disposition. A pending to disposition ratio of 2.00 means that there are twice as many cases pending compared to the number of cases disposed during the year. The pending to disposition ratio is calculated by dividing the total number of cases pending by the number of cases disposed.

NOTE: This table does not indicate the number of cases that were heard by judges who had been transferred by Supreme Court order. It is likely that in many instances judges may have heard several cases during the course of a single transfer.

Total transfers to another circuit do not equal total transfers into the circuit due to the transfer of retired judges or transfers of Circuit Court judges to an appellate court.
